

Dear Parents,

Listed below are some learning sites that will assist your child with distance learning. You will also find links to these sites on our webpage, www.atlchester.com.

Websites we use at school – These sites vary by grade level. Check your individual student packets for additional log in information.

iXL - www.ixl.com – You will find a sheet in your packet with log in instructions. This site is for practice in all grades for all subjects.

xtramath - www.xtramath.org – Fact practice

Raz Kids - <https://www.kidsa-z.com/main/Login> - Reading practice and comprehension

Epic! - <https://www.getepic.com/> - access thousands of books, videos, quizzes, etc.

CNN10 - <https://www.cnn.com/cnn10> - current events/news

Teach Your Monster to Read - <https://www.teachyourmonstertoread.com/u/2060440>

Typing Club - <https://the-academy-for-teaching-and-learning.typingclub.com/portal/>

Other recommended sites:

Khan Academy - <https://www.khanacademy.org/> - tutoring videos and practice in all subjects

Nitrotype - <https://www.nitrotype.com/>

ABC Mouse – www.abcmouse.com (Use the code SCHOOL2568 to create a free account)

Scholastic – <https://classroommagazines.scholastic.com/support/learnathome.html>

Starfall – www.starfall.com

PBS Kids – pbskids.org

Prodigy – play.prodigygame.com

National Geographic – kids.nationalgeographic.com

Lastly each lab has a bookmark page that may be found here:

K-4 www.draggo.com/mrsodell

5-8 www.draggo.com/mrswade

Many educational sites are offering free accounts during this time. Feel free to try other sites!